

THE GOOD NEWS

FAITH UNITED METHODIST CHURCH | MAY/JUNE 2022

FROM THE PASTOR

Can I get a little Metho-geeky on you this month? What makes this month different, Pastor Laura?)

It feels important at this moment in the history of The United Methodist Church and Faith United Methodist Church (in particular) to remember where Methodism started and with what vision Methodism began.

Did you know that John Wesley (and Charles too) didn't set out to start a new church?

Instead, they sought to reform their society (and – by the way – the church), reaching new people and including them fully in a life of learning, growth, holiness and service. They understood that this couldn't be done by expecting people to show up for what was happening in the sanctuaries each week. Instead, they imagined a network of small groups, connected to larger bodies, connected to worship opportunities. This sort of network, connected NOT by clergy but by lay preachers and teachers, engaged A LOT of people, and helped them learn and understand new things.

As people learned and understood new things, the Wesley's hoped and prayed that people would serve one another differently.

They might understand the work they did for pay differently. They might understand the power of money and earning differently. They might advocate for education, health care, housing and worker's rights differently.

When John Wesley felt called to spread his movement into the American colonies in the 18th Century, he sent not two clergy, but two lay people. And after the Revolutionary War, as the United States gained independence and spread toward the west, in order to reach all of the new communities, lay preachers served communities. Clergy showed up occasionally by riding a circuit – riding from community to community to offer communion (this is how we arrived at the tradition of having communion once a month because traditionally a church would have to wait for their turn for clergy to show up).

FROM THE PASTOR

Our United Methodist Church divides governing authority evenly between laity and clergy in the voting body of the general conference. Changes to our governing documents can only be made by the whole voting body and that is by design.

As we think about the society in which we live, as we think about the Kin-dom of God that we imagine and hope for, I wonder if there is some deep wisdom in returning to the Wesleys' original vision of a big network of folks who learned together, served together and worshiped together, who then operated in society with hearts on fire for loving neighbor.

As we think about how we at Faith might grow stronger and more active, I pray we can look at this history and be true to that shared work. I am so grateful for the ways folks at Faith have leaned in to learn and grow. The future holds more opportunities for us to invite people onto the journey with us. It takes all hands on deck. We're not starting a new church, but strengthening the Rockville community and all of the places we touch. I look forward to how we do this together.

May it be so,

Pastor Laura

MESSY CHURCH! SATURDAY AT 4:30 P.M.

Faith United Methodist Church

Come join us for our very first Messy Church worship service, this Saturday, May 14, 2022 from 4:30-6:00 p.m.!

Did I hear you say what is Messy Church?

It is a quarterly inter-generational worship service which emphasizes being together (fellowship), making things together (creativity & service), eating together, and celebrating God together through preaching, music, and prayer.

Last summer we "piloted" the Messy Church concept in the form of Family Fun Nights. We developed an intergenerational team of a dozen people who led worship, developed creative crafts and service projects, and shared communal meals. We are now uniquely positioned to formalize another worship service to reach a broader community. Please come and invite families and single friends who may be unfamiliar, uncomfortable or even injured by the Church in its more traditional forms. Messy Church is the framework we will use to help our neighbors experience the radical love of Jesus Christ in community.

At Faith UMC we say our church is a place to belong, become, and believe. Messy Church is a tangible expression of our values: a place for people of all generations and backgrounds to belong in loving Christian community; to become more mature in our understanding of who God is; and believe in the saving power of our risen Savior, Jesus the Christ. Please contact Janice Harmon, Minister of Care, Connection and InterGen Nurture at jharmon@faithworkshere.com with any questions.

SUMMER WORSHIP

Last summer, seeking to find fellowship after a long season of worshipping exclusively online, we claimed our parking lot as worship space. And it was amazing. Let's do it again!

Beginning Sunday, June 19, we will worship outdoors on the parking lot each Sunday at 10 a.m. (weather permitting). The good news is that this summer we have "weather flexibility" – we can make a decision Sunday morning and meet indoors in our sanctuary should weather (rain or excessive heat) be a factor. (And there won't be cicadas this year!)

Last year the Bell Choir, led by Nancy Kuhn, practices before service.

Why outdoors?

1-Because of COVID changes over the past two years, we've learned that worship is flexible, Spirit-led, and work that we share. Outdoor worship requires a lot of "hands on deck" and when we worshiped outdoors last year, folks came together in amazing ways.

2- When we worship outdoors, there are no doors – it is easier for our neighbors to join us without crossing a threshold. We can meet our neighbors in different ways outdoors.

3- Worshipping outdoors gives us a chance to experiment with new ways of worshipping together and the changed worship space frees us up to imagine new possibilities.

We need volunteers to keep worship vital this summer. We need hosts to welcome everyone, AV volunteers so that we can continue to stream online, we need liturgists to lead us, we need musicians to stretch our voices, ears and hearts. And specific to outdoor worship, a set-up team! This may include bringing a few tables, chairs, the wooden cross, lectern, the keyboard and other miscellaneous items to the parking lot. If you are willing to share 30 minutes of your time and brawn to set-up for summer worship, please sign up here. How are you called to help this summer?

More information about summer worship will be published in a future Friday's What's Working at Faith.

THANK YOU TO OUR SUNDAY SCHOOL VOLUNTEERS

Since we returned to our building, we have been navigating almost weekly “tweaks” to how we share worship on Sundays. And as we have waited for the youngest among us to get vaccinated (and let’s remember that children under 5 STILL cannot access the vaccine), we have moved from sharing online resources, to porch drops of church-in-a-box, to in-person Sunday school for about 25 minutes during worship. With some folks staying online for safety, we’ve had to adjust. And guess what? It’s been amazing!

We are grateful to the 11 volunteers who have worked with joy, flexibility, grace, and LOVE FOR KIDS to make Sunday School happen. A special shout out to Janice Jones who has navigated these waters since COVID began, and to Jan Spencer who has been a source of creativity and wisdom and organization. AND thanks to the many folks who have taught lessons in the classroom since we returned to the building.

Sunday School class in March with leaders, Karen Johnston and Sally Stolz.

In some ways, we have had the best of both worlds in this season, with our kids being included in our worship. (It gives the pastor SO MUCH JOY to hear the voices of our youngest chiming in during the Lord’s Prayer, communion responses or the call to worship on Sundays.) They have also been guided and cared for by adults who love them unconditionally and offer examples of service while sharing the good news of God’s love, Jesus’ ministry and resurrection, and the Holy Spirit’s uniting power.

Say THANK YOU to a Sunday School volunteer when you get the chance. Thank them for sharing their light with our kids!

SHOW LOVE FOR ONE ANOTHER AT DC PRIDE PARADE

How are we doing, Faith UMC?

Is it enough to fly a rainbow flag in the front of the church and note our membership in the Reconciling Ministries Network?

Since last June, we have been blessed to have expanded the number of families attending Faith whose members are LBGTQ+, and we pray that they feel affirmed in every way. But are there other ways to be an ally to LBGTQ+ in the larger community? Can we more enthusiastically affirm our support for current and potential members of our congregation by publicly affirming, as individuals, our support for LBGTQ+ in the DC metropolitan area? Can we grow in our understanding and learn how to be better allies?

On June 11, folks from Faith will join 150 other Methodists from DC-MD-VA who will be participating in the DC Pride Parade. We will be identified as Faith UMC of Rockville. Wearing the T-shirts described on page 11, either while marching or standing along the curb and cheering as the parade goes by, is one example of claiming Faith's role as a reconciling community. Your identity as a member of Faith UMC will be an invitation to anyone who makes note of that to check Faith out on-line and attend in-person, after they like what they learn about Faith virtually.

Anticipating the parade will run between 4:00-6:30 pm, the route will be approximately one and a half miles and may require up to an hour standing in the staging areas near the Parade's starting point near Logan Circle. More details about the specific time and location of the staging area and the Parade route will be available at the end of May. Most marchers and spectators will wish to go downtown by Metro, but our Small Groups may also organize carpools. Details to follow. Meanwhile, if you have any questions or wish to take a leadership role in organizing some aspect of this participation, please contact Bill Maas at 301-254-7814 (m) or billmaas@verizon.net.

All are invited to participate in Faith's LOAM ministry, doing all that we can to learn, to understand, to be better and do better, and most certainly, to love one another.

FROM THE DIRECTOR OF MUSIC

“Let all things now living | a song of thanksgiving | To God the creator | triumphantly raise.”

~Katherine K. Davis, The Ash Grove (1939)

As this newsletter represents the last one before the volunteer friends and members of Faith UMC involved in our Music Ministry adjourn for a well-deserved summer off, I thank all who helped lead worship and made music at Faith.

Our YOUNG SINGERS OF FAITH had a brief reunion in December to provide music during our family Christmas Eve service. I am thankful for Will and Laura Hahs, and to Nicole and Rachel Baptista, for getting singing back into their routines. The pandemic resurgence in early 2022 made the continued singing with these choristers more challenging; let us all pray we have seen the worst of COVID19 and can resume Young Singers of Faith in the fall.

Our BELLS OF FAITH carried us through our initial parking lot services throughout the summer of 2021 in addition to returning to monthly contributions to worship leadership from September to May. Nancy Kuhn continues to lead our devoted ringers with love and diligence. Our ringers include Carol Benson, Janice Jones, Susan Keller, Pam Kessler, Nancy Kuhn, Paula MacCormack, Mary Gordon, Carol Henley, Kay McCarty, Virginia McDowell, Marti Phillips-Patrick, and Jane Rall. Jean Decker and Carol Dismukes fill in when they are in the area.

Our CHANCEL CHOIR has been faithful in representing the congregation in the singing of hymns in addition to continuing to lead worship through music all year long. We have tolerated masks, a cold Fellowship Hall with doors and windows open throughout the winter to keep airflow at its maximum and our singer safety (if discomfort) at its most optimal, and even a brief resurgence of the pandemic that kept us from rehearsing in January. In addition to the continued blessing our Tenor Section Leader, André Coleman, is to our choir and to our music ministries, please join me in thanking: Carolyn Herman, Susan Keller, Nancy Kuhn, Jane Rall, Sara Romeyn, Nancy Skinner, Maddie Smedberg, Ellen Stanley, sopranos; Marie Day, Bonnie Dunn, Meg McCormick Martin, Virginia McDowell, Suzanne Smedberg, June Watts, Barbara Wege, altos; Jim Johnston, Kay McCarty, tenors, with André Coleman, tenor section leader, and Tim Evans, Mike Newton, and Bob Wood are our basses.

Of course, our TEAM OF AUDIO AND LIVE-STREAMING ENGINEERS, led by Jason Spriggs, have been instrumental in helping our Music Ministries translate from leading worship in this space to our impressive on-line presence. Thank you to Andrew Fish, Brian Hahs, Brian Jones, Woody Machalek, Chuck Spencer, Debbie Spriggs, and Eric Winchenbach who staff the equipment in the balcony each Sunday.

And, we welcome and thank Yeri So, who came on board as our ORGANIST and who accompanies our Chancel Choir by singing and playing whatever keyboard is in front of her to help us shine no matter the music.

When the Chancel Choir finishes leading worship June 12, our 10 a.m. Sunday worship becomes more informal and outside in our parking lot (inside for inclement weather). We are appreciative of the members whose contributions provided us with the digital piano we have to keep music an integral part of that worship experience, and we welcome volunteers who sing or play instruments to continue our tradition of special and beautiful music that help us worship no matter the style or location. Let Yeri (yso@faithworkshere.com) or me (singingwu67@gmail.com) know, and we will help you in whatever ways we can, from rehearsing to accompanying, scheduling, and resources.

To close with the same Davis poetry from the same Ash Grove tune:

"We too should be voicing our love and rejoicing; | With glad adoration a song let us raise | Till all things now living unite in thanksgiving: | "To God in the highest, Hosanna and praise!"

~Katherine K. Davis, The Ash Grove (1939)

With great appreciation,

Dr. Michael Wu

FAITH FOUNDATION GRANTS DEADLINE JUNE 1ST

Faith Works!

The Faith Foundation is pleased to be able to provide grants to outside local public charities. This outreach is basic to our Faith values.

Each applicant should be sponsored by a Faith member. This is an opportunity for members to reach out to their preferred charities. Grants will range from $500 to $2,000.

Have your preferred charity complete the application here. Complete hard copy applications must be postmarked on or before June 1st and we will attempt notification of award by June 28, 2022. As the application indicates we would like hard copy submissions.

Please contact Barbara Wege, barbarawege@verizon.net for any questions.

HELPING OUR NEIGHBORS THROUGH MICROGRANTS

In addition to consistent support of several interfaith service organizations in the county, the people of Faith found inspiring and creative ways to support one another and to reach out to our neighbors in 2021. One of these is the Outreach Team's microgrant program. The program provides small amounts (up to $500 per microgrant) to enable members of Faith to help others in ways you are passionate about. That could include activities you undertake yourselves or activities of smaller non-profits in which you directly participate or with which you have a connection. While our main goal is to engage the congregation in meeting community needs, we have also learned more about what members of the congregation care most about, as well as about smaller non-profits that serve our neighbors.

The 2021 microgrants were used in a variety of creative ways. A description of the program, further information about previously awarded microgrants, and an application form are all available here.

We have been inspired by the creativity of our congregation and the breadth of concerns that touch the hearts of Faith. Thank you for your caring, engagement and community effort.

The microgrants program will continue in 2022. If you have ideas for activities that reach out to others and help those in need, either by yourself or with a non-profit, email serving@faithworkshere.com and ask for a microgrant application form. Applications are accepted and funded on a rolling basis.

STAFF FOCUS ON CARE AND NURTURE

A year ago, we had not re-entered our building for worship and we were preparing for monthly outdoor worship. With so many kinds of change in a short time, we realized that it might be helpful to revisit one of the fantastic developments of the past year.

Last Summer, Janice Harmon joined the lay staff team at Faith. We recently revised her working title – she is the Director of Care, Connection and Intergenerational Nurture at Faith. In that role, she has two primary responsibilities in her portfolio.

First, she nurtures, supports and supervises Faith’s congregational care ministers (CCMs). CCMS are lay persons (not ordained) who are members of the congregation and are called and equipped to offer care and comfort to other members of the congregation. Janice is responsible for the growth of that team, in terms of numbers, reach, and skill. Already, the team of CCMs has doubled in size from 3 to 6!

Second, she is developing an alternative worship opportunity at Faith – Messy Church. The goal of Messy Church is to connect with people who are not likely to cross our threshold for a traditional worship service on a Sunday morning. There are so many who need to hear how much God loves them but also may work on Sunday mornings, may have no experience or interest in what they think happens inside a sanctuary, or may have had a bad experience of church in the past. Messy Church is an intergenerational opportunity for people to come together for fellowship, creativity, worship, and food.

And that leads to an important part of her title – “intergenerational.” All of Janice’s work happens with an eye toward how we bridge generations in community so that we are all learning and growing together. It is vital to remember that at every age, we have things to learn from those around us, younger and older.

Janice continues to work full-time for NASA as a congressional affairs specialist. Her work at Faith is part-time. We’re grateful for her bright outlook and great preaching, and look forward to how the Holy Spirit will guide, shape and expand her work here in greater Rockville. You can reach Janice via email at jharmon@faithworkshere.com.
